FIRM POSITION

Kristy is a Senior Manager in RKL's Tax Services Group. She specializes in estates, trusts, gift and high net worth individuals. Kristy uses her expertise to assist her clients in navigating the complexities of tax compliance and planning. In addition, Kristy also has experience with estate planning and the preparation of trust accountings. Furthermore, Kristy has experience working with closely held businesses and their owners, which enables her to provide insights and guidance tailored to the unique needs of the individuals she works with. Kristy is a member of the Private Wealth Team, serving high-net-worth families and individuals across a continuum of wealth management, tax, and advisory solutions. What Kristy values most is the opportunity to build personal relationships with her clients. By understanding their individual situations and aspirations, Kristy can deliver customized advice that resonates with their goals and values. Kristy's approach is not just about providing tax services; it's about being a trusted advisor in her clients' long-term success.

PROFESSIONAL & BUSINESS HISTORY

Kristy joined the firm in 2023, bringing with her 12 years of public accounting experience at a top 10 national accounting firm.
